As part of our ongoing commitment to our valued borrowers, Essex Mortgage is dedicated to providing essential information to ensure a smooth and seamless mortgage experience. Today, we aim to educate our borrowers on the crucial aspects of their insurance policy, with a particular focus on the mortgagee clause, its significance, and the specific clause we require for timely and accurate payment processing.

What is a Mortgagee Clause, and Why is it Important?

A mortgagee clause is a fundamental component of your insurance policy that identifies the party to whom the insurance carrier must direct the bill. In this context, "mortgagee" refers to the lender, which in our case is Essex Mortgage. The mortgagee clause is essential because it ensures that the insurance carrier has the accurate details needed to process payments promptly.

For your convenience, here is the mortgagee clause you should make sure your insurance carrier is utilizing:

Essex Mortgage ISAOA / ATIMA P.O. Box 391313 Solon, OH 44139-8313

By having the correct mortgagee clause on your insurance policy, you can rest assured that any payments related to your property insurance will be made in a timely manner, enabling us to continue safeguarding your home and investment.

The Importance of Providing Evidence of Insurance Coverage

You might wonder why we request evidence of insurance coverage for your property. Well, the answer is simple: as part of your loan requirements, maintaining adequate homeowners insurance throughout the term of your loan is crucial. This insurance protection is not just for your benefit but also for the protection of both you and your lender—Essex Mortgage—should unexpected damage occur to your property.

By providing evidence of insurance coverage, you demonstrate your commitment to meeting the loan requirements and ensuring the safety of your investment. It also allows us to verify that your property remains adequately protected, giving you peace of mind in times of unforeseen events.
